NYSARC Third Party Community Trust

The NYSARC Third Party Community Trust is a pooled supplemental needs trust (SNT) that can be established by a family member, friend, or other entity, known as the Donor.

The purpose of this trust is to assist families in providing for the future needs of a loved one with a disability while preserving that person's eligibility for vital means-tested government benefits.

Why establish a trust (SNT)?

A SNT is an important planning tool for a person with a disability.

If your child or loved one receives services through Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and/or Medicaid, or may need these benefits in the future, receiving even a modest inheritance from someone could put them over the financial limits to qualify for these programs and jeopardize their financial eligibility for services.

"With a NYSARC trust, we know she will always be cared for."

- Parent of trust beneficiary

A Third Party Community Trust can help you:

- Protect and preserve your loved one's financial eligibility for benefits
- Plan for their future needs
- Provide the means to improve their quality of life
- Safeguard funds to be spent appropriately and wisely
- Experience the benefits of professional trust administration

What can the trust pay for?

Trust funds can pay for life-enhancing items and services that are not covered by their benefits.

Some common examples include:

- Entertainment/Travel
- Education
- Computers/Electronics
- Personal Care Services
- Uncovered medical expenses
- Living expenses (limitations for SSI recipients)
